

Coronavirus (COVID-19): letter to the construction sector, November 2020

PUBLISHED NOV 13, 2020
BY GOV.UK

The letter thanks those working in the construction industry and its supply chain, including product manufacturers, merchants and professional service, for their success in continuing to deliver projects despite the challenges of COVID-19.

It emphasises that the industry can and should continue to work during the current period of restrictions, and follow government guidance on safe working.
