BY GOV.UK

The British Embassy in Buenos Aires is seeking applicants for the position of Honorary Consul for Prosperity and Economic Affairs in the province of Salta. This honorary position will help represent the British Embassy build relationships within the provinces of Salta and Jujuy.

We are seeking someone of standing in the local community, with a good standard of English and, preferably, connections to the United Kingdom. They should have extensive personal connections among the political and business community; they will be expected to assist the Ambassador and Embassy team to make contact with local political and economic leaders. The appointed person will be expected to assist in organising visits by the Ambassador and Embassy staff to the region. They will also be a point of contact for British business operating in the region, helping them to understand the business environment and make relevant connections to potential business partners. They will not be expected to assist British Nationals with problems related to e.g. tourism or passports.

Applicants should submit a CV and a personal statement of no more than 1000 words in English describing their motivation for applying and suitability for the role before the end of Sunday, 3 July. Applications should be sent to BuenosAires.Jobs@fcdo.gov.uk with the subject line 'Honorary Consul, Salta'.
