CV5 Capital, a leading provider of a turnkey regulated fund platform in the Cayman Islands, has partnered with Fundsure in the UK

CV5 Capital and Fundsure have entered into a ground-breaking joint venture.

CV5 Capital, a leading provider of a turnkey regulated fund platform in the Cayman Islands, has partnered with Fundsure in the UK to provide global support for prospective fund managers. Fundsure will be CV5's representative across EMEA.

CV5 Capital offers hedge fund platform and fund solutions to managers throughout the fund life-cycle. They are at the forefront of developments in the asset management industry, working with fund managers to structure, launch and operate funds, focusing on providing ready-made solutions to seamlessly launch hedge and crypto funds in record time with all service providers set-up and ready. Offering a seamless, surprisingly cost-effective and regulated structure in as little as four weeks, the offer is compelling for emerging managers or existing funds that would like to supplement their offer with a feeder fund.

David Lloyd, CEO of CV5 Capital, said "We have worked with Fundsure since their launch in August 2020 and have found them to be super-responsive to client demands and very knowledgeable about the market. A joint-venture with them comes at an exciting time for CV5 Capital and I'm very pleased to have them on board as we push into the next stage of our growth".

Steve Middleton, CEO of Fundsure, commented "Our focus on governance and compliance whilst specialising in structuring AIFs, has lent itself to us being a natural partner to CV5

Capital. The offer is so compelling compared to the traditional solution, I'm delighted to be able to offer it as an alternative".
