List has proven success in connecting buyers and sellers in the industry and bringing self storage opportunities to investors.

List Self Storage (ListSelfStorage.com; “List”), the premier online platform for connecting buyers and sellers of self storage facilities, development land and conversion opportunities, has launched ListSelfStorage.co.uk to serve the growing property acquisition community in England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. List Self Storage is a product of StorTrack, the world’s leading self storage data provider.

“The growth in demand in the UK is fueling increased investment and development in self storage, just as it continues to do in the US and elsewhere. List has proven success in connecting buyers and sellers in the industry and bringing self storage opportunities to investors. This is the right time to provide this important service to the industry in the UK”, stated Alison DeJaeger, President of List.

Since inception, the US website has represented more than $5 billion in self storage, conversion and development properties for sale with participation from the brokerage community and features hundreds of self storage opportunities at any time.

The new UK website offers users access to available listings in the UK as well as educational resources including webinars from industry experts, news on recent transactions, articles on market evaluation and more. In addition, the website is integrated with StorTrack’s MarketView Platform which provides analytics on local market conditions such as existing supply, demand indicators, demographics and historical data, giving buyers unique intelligence on the opportunity and support for investment decisions.

Launched in 2015, List Self Storage is the premier platform for buying and selling self storage facilities, conversion properties and development land in various phases of permitting. The website also features a comprehensive online vendor directory for all aspects of developing, building, purchasing, financing, managing and selling a facility.
