I played on my balcony, under bridges in fields, in empty car parks and filmed myself doing it.

The World has changed a lot since 2020

Tim says, "2020 and early 2021 so far has really hit my business, not being able to gig, play in clubs or events meant I had to think of other ways to get my music out there."

Tim has focussed heavily on building and entertaining his following online and on his social media channels,

"I have a need to perform, and play the guitar so I did", Tim laughs, "I played on my balcony, under bridges in the middle of fields, in empty car parks and filmed myself doing it. The response has been amazing, with one video getting 190,000 views in 4hrs, unbelievable really".

This is my new single, my first since Covid-19 and the first that I have not marketed by playing live shows.

It is inspired by the last 12 months and that thought, the thought of freedom, together on a night out, the lights, music, the joy of those nights, the release of all your worries, of dancing with your friends in a club to your favourite tune, together...

It's all about being together and sharing that joy. New Single 'Glass Zebra' will be released 16th March 2021 on Spotify.

Tim has received fantastic national reviews of his previous instrumental guitar album and single releases; with the UK and US guitar press likening his style to: Joe Satriani, Jeff Beck and Brian May, but, with a modern Balearic twist; now known as 'Guitar Mashing'.

Tim has also previously written guitar instrumentals for Judge Jules, played for Radio 1 in Ibiza and played live alongside the Body Rockers, Freemasons and Herd & Fitz.
