His new role will not only cover sales but also the all-important relationships with existing key partners as well as seeking out new strategic partnerships going forward.

"Tom's promotion is totally deserved as he has proved himself time and time again with the company during his nearly 8 years with us. He is effective and hard-working - and knows the importance of customer relationships- so I am positive he will bring these skills - and more - to his new role" said Managing Director Eric Darling.

Tom commented, "I'm looking forward to this new and exciting opportunity to push forwards for thinkTRIBE, share my experience with a growing team and contribute to future business success."
