Free Car Check Get a vehicle history report that includes information on import, finance, theft, & more | UK's lowest cost HPI checks

The Hire Purchase Investigation (HPI) Company, the pioneer of this business, provides a car data check service. However, modern, improved, and cost-effective vehicle inspection service providers do their best to assist used car buyers. The car data market in the UK has evolved and opened up, meaning you can now get the same information about the vehicle from other providers, but for less money.

Still, some people prefer HPI check because they think that it is an all-in-one package and provides information that others do not. Well, it is a half-truth. The HPI check has only one package. In contrast, we have two packages; free and premium. If you want the same information as the HPI, opt for a premium car history check, and you will find no info missing – That is a promise.

But buyers beware; most car history check services are scams you with a free HPI check label. There is no such thing as a Free HPI check. So, it would be best if you found a genuine service provider like The Auto Experts where you get a premium check (equivalent to HPI check).
